

This project is funded by the European Union

PUBLIC CALL FOR CREATION OF CAMPAIGN SONG LYRICS

Social Inclusion Foundation in BiH (SIF in BiH) announces a public call for interested candidates to apply for creation of campaign song lyrics under the motto „Will You Stop and Listen“ under the project “Build up for Social Inclusion Advocacy Platform in Bosnia and Herzegovina #BuildUp4SIAPinBiH”, that is implemented by the SIF in BiH jointly with its partner organization Initiative for better and humane inclusion (IBHI), with support of the European union and UNICEF.

General objective of the project “Build up for Social Inclusion Advocacy Platform in Bosnia and Herzegovina #BuildUp4SIAPinBiH” is “Development and strengthening of role, capacity and visibility of network of civil society organizations “Coalition of marginalized groups in BiH - KOMA” for participation in social activities of public policymaking and advocacy for rights of marginalized population as precondition for more just and open society that supports process of EU integration “.

For the implementation of assignment, one (1) provider will be contracted (position title: Song Writer) that will cooperate with the project team.

For detailed information about conditions and application process, and expected deliverables, please review the terms of reference (ToR) in English with the accompanying template for financial bid/proposal, enclosed to this call.

For detailed information about conditions and application process, and expected deliverables, please review the terms of reference (ToR) in English with the accompanying template for financial bid/proposal, enclosed to this call.

Interested applicants are kindly invited to submit the biography in English, the financial bid in the attached template, technical bid and list of references via email sif@sif.ba (marked: Application for the position Song Writer), not later than 20th May 2020 until 17:00h.

Director of SIF in BiH

Ranka Ninković- Papić